The following arraignments took place in the Criminal. Court this morning; Charles K. Wilson, using the postal mall service for improper purposes, and in violation of the Revised Statutes; pleaded not guilty; Earnest Outen, second offense petit larceny; pleaded not guilty; George Thompson, receiving stolen goods; pleaded not guilty; Thomas Ward, Ed. Morrill, Charles Fitzsimmona and Charles Lilly, assault with intent to kill Sergeant T. B. Amles; pleaded not guilty.

ELIZABETH WASHINGTON and two other colored dames were walking along Bridge street, in Georgetown, last Friday night, when Edward Nelson, a fresh young colored blood, came up, and, catching hold of the hand of one of the girls, said, "Let's take a walk." Elizabeth said she would'nt have such familiarity with her irlend and told Edward he had better "go long bout his business." Nelson thought his rights as a "masher had been interfered with, and proceeded to pummel Miss Washington in first-class style, knocking her down and otherwise maltreating her. The case was heard before Judge Snell this morning and defendant was fined $5 and costs.

In the Police Court to-day Mr. Charles Otto Ulrich, a German, was charged with the ab-duction of his own children, Gustavus E. M Ulrich and Herman Otto Ulrich, aged respec-tively six and seven years. It appears that Mrs. Ulrich recently received custody of the Mrs. Ulrich recently received custody of the children by order of the court, while a divorce suit brought by her is pending. Mrs. Louisa M. J. Ulrich, who swore out the warrant, states that she had separated from her hus band on account of his brutal treatment of herself and the children, and that she was providing for the children, and sending them school, and yesterday her husband went to the school and adducted the children and took them to the house where he was living. The children were subsequently recovered on the warrant and given into the custody of the mother. Judge Snell held that a man could not be criminally responsible for feloniously stealing and carrying away his own children, and as the children had been returned to the mother he would dismiss the case.

Capital City Guards' Fair. This fair, now being held at Wayland Hall, is an assured success. The hall has been nightly crowded. Last night the officers, staff and members of the Washington Light Infantry Corps and Union Veteran Corps turned out in full force and contributed much cash to the young ladies presiding at the cash to the young ladies presiding at the various tables. The visiting members were received with military honors, and an address of welcome delivered by Captain Kelly on behalf of the corps, and fittingly responded to by officers of the visiting organizations. The canvassing for votes is being actively carried on. For the fishing tackle Mr. Isaac Sandle, Mr. John L. Webster and Mr. William Malvin are running each other hard. The gold watch will probably go to either Mr. Charles E. Nelson, of William's, or Mr. Thurston, of the Biggs Honse. The contestants for the policeman's uniform are officers John T. Layton, William West, C. Gilnton and John W. Belley. Balley seems to be the favorite and will probably secure it.

The Workingmen.

The Workingmen.

The mechanics and laborers of the District will hold an important mass-meeting this evening, to which all persons interested in promoting the welfare of the workingmen are invited. The meeting will be held at Aber's Hall, and will be addressed by R. J. McGuire, editor of the Carpenters' Lether Journal of New York, who will treat of the benefits of organizing and forming unions, of restricting the number of hours of labor, and other topics of interest to the workingmen.

A BUNCO MAN On Trial in the Criminal Court To-

On Trial in the Criminal Court Today.

The United States recently, in the Criminal Court, has prosecuted, with commendable success, the three-card-monte men, who for five years past have carried on their netarious business in this District, carrying their visitims to the Arsenal grounds, Carroll Springs of Arlington, and then fleecing them, and today turned their attention to the bunco game and the manipulators of it. These viditures have prepred upon the public for a long time, and until new it seems to have been impossible to come up with thom. The monitorial gives his name as youndown and herly-locking man from Belrast, Alleghany County, N. who was mulcited in the sum of the first was stopping on Pennsylvania avenue, near the St. Charles. He met a young man on the struct who claimed to know him, and was also from Belfast, N. N. After being laireduced and in the sum of the sum in since, we have to colice Headquarters the roll of money was dropped and ten dollars recovered.

Mr. Williams did not think, under the testimony, that the charge of larceny was austained, as the witness testified to volunteering to enter into the game, and the money remained in his sight until Mr. Bartlett refused longer to continue it, and the money was offered to be refunded if he thought he had not been treated fairly. The court declined to take that view of it, illong, the defendant, testified to meeting Mr. Bartlett in December. He went around to Mr. Jackson's Glub-rooms, on Missouri avenue, and was interested in a social game of poker, when he saw Mr. Bartlett and his friend enter the adjoining room. After they went out the trouble arose, when Mr. Jackson sent the witness to pay Mr. Bartlett his money back. While trying to do so, he was arrested, and on the way to the station he slipped the money back to Mr. Jackson, excepting a ten-dollar bill which fell on the sidewalk. Mr. Jackson was now attending the races at Nashville, Tenn. The paraphernalia of the game was shown and the witness termed it on sight dice game. After argument the case was given to the jury.

At 2 o'clock the jury, not being able to After argument the case was acceptable to agree, the court took a recess. His Honor said that he would come to the court any time before 10 p. m., but after that hour he would not come until the next morning.

The swindle dark complexion, is "working the racket" in East Washington now. Storekeepers are therefore warned to look out for him. The swindle consists of the following operation: He selects a store in which there are no adult mates, and entering asks the female or child to change a quarter for him, presenting the piece with his right hand, in which he also has concealed two three-cent pieces and a nickle. Aimest invariably his request is complied with and two tens and a five-cent piece are passed over the counter to him. Picking these up with his left hand and quickly piacing the threes and five upon the counter to him. Selection of the stantly calls the attendant's attention to the evident mistake, and asks for fourteen cents more. In most cases he is successful; if, however, he is suspletioned of fraud and the additional amount refused, he becomes loud and bolisterous and threatens to raise hades, which generally accomplishes the purpose, as he is always dealing with women and children. He was caught in the act yesterday by an East Washington desler, who had heard of the fellow before, and unfortunately he was allowed to escape. Look out for the three-cent game.

The last sociable of the season by the Young People's Association of the Mctropolitan Presbyterian Church occurred last night in the church lecture-room. A delightful evening was spent by those of the association and church who were fortunate enough to be presented; Vocal duct, Misses Bradier any Pryor; song, Miss Lettle Ransom; recitation, Miss Vinnie Hawk; whisels sole, Miss Hattle Larziere; instrumental duet, Misses Bradier any Pryor; song, Miss Lettle Ransom; recitation, Miss Vinnie Hawk; while sole, Miss Hattle Larziere; instrumental duet, Misses Brewer and Van Dorn. Mirth and converse completed the snjoyment of the evening.

Mary Kenny, white, was arrested last evening on suspicion of having stolen a crape shawl. Mary was found by the officer in a diorious state of inchriation, When the station keeper searched her it was discovered she had on four dresse Foresman; quartet, "Come Where the Lilles," choir.

The anniversary sociable, by the members of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, last night, at McCauley's Hall, was a most enjoyable occasion. The following programme was nicely rendered: "Sweet and Low," quartet, by the choir; "The Last Hymn," recitation, by Miss Kraemer; "Il Travatore," instrumental duct, by the Misses Bradford; "Just as of Old," song, by Miss Wolls; "The Storm," instrumental, by Mrs. Lighter; "Auld Robin Gray," song, by Miss Bradford; "Sophocles Snakes," recitation, Miss Kraemer; "Illy the Fireside," song, Miss Wells, after the rendition of the programme refreshments were served, and pleasant conversation indulged in until closing time, "which came regretfully." Rev. A. F. Steele, in his usual affable manner, added much pleasure to the latter part of the exercises.

It is now proposed to start a subscription in East and Central Washington for the purpose pleasure to the latter part of the exercises.

SOCIETY.

What is Going On in the Social World.

Dr. Alexander Magrudor, U. S. N., sails for France in a few days, having been detached from duly here and ordered to take charge of the medical stores at Ville Franche. He will be accompanied by his wife, who has been a favorite in our society ever since her debut, as Miss Belle Richardson, several winters ago. The station is within easy run of Nice, and they are to be congratulated on their pleasant duty, for the place is one of the pretilest on the Mediterranean coast, and the winter society at Nice is second only to our own.

The secret was well kept until within the past few weeks, when Mrs. Squier returned to the Fortress to be present at her husband's graduation, and the romantic story escaped somehow, fluttering from one to another until known to all. The young groom is the son of the Central and South American traveler of the same name, and is handsome and clever.

It is the finest organization of light opera, taken all in all, that has visited our city for years, comprising as it does the best adapted taient in both the musical and dramatic lines. The rendition of "The Widow" last evening was strikingly excellent. While all of the artists merit praise, special commendation is due to Messrs, Mark Smith, James G. Feakes, Misses Louise Searle, Adelaide Randall and Emma Pressey. The chorus is excellent, and the musical direction of Mr. W. E. Taylor perfect, This evening "Mascotte" will be produced.

The National Theatre. The National Theatre.

One of the most brilliant and critical andiences of the season filled every seat at the National Theatre last night to tender a fitting ovation to America's favorite prima doma, Clara Louise Kellogg, on the occasion of her farewell performance. The opera was "Faust," and Miss Kellogg as Marguerite was at her best. She never sang nor acted before in her life as effectively as last evening, Her support was powerful, especially Manont as Mephistophetes. This evening Madame Etelka Gerster appears as Reeiss in "The Barber of Seville."

A most delightful dancing sociable was given at the residence of F. W. Jones, esq., on N street, by his daughters, Misses Bessle and Mabel, complimentary to their friend, Misses Dora Hardenbrook, of New York, who is visiting them. Among the many young society people present were the Misses Floric and Lillie Welch, Marie and Antoinette Thian, Hardenbrook, Jones, Davidson and Messrs, Forrest, Stuart, Bradley, Mayfield, Nicholson, Libbey, Shoemsker and others.

Miss Dalay Theckr, the proprietress of the well-known lancy store on M street, between Jefferson avenue and Thirty-first street, died very suddenly last night about 10-20. She had been at her place of business all day, and was spending the evening at the house of a neighbor, where she was taken with a violent hemorrhage, add being carried to be come out thereafter.

Yesterday afternoon a committee of four drivers of the Metropolitan Street failroat, appointed by their fellow-drivers, waited upon Mr. John W. Thompson, president of the road, with a respectful petition to raise their pay three cents per trip, making $1.50 for 12½ hours work, when their modest request was met with a peremptory dismissal from their positions. The romaining drivers have determined to leave the cars in the stables to-morrow unless these men are immediately reintated.

There was a large attendance at the regular meeting of Decatur Lodge No. 9, K. of P., tast night, at which there were seven reinstatements and five applications for membership. P. C. Oliver, of Harmony Lodge No. 21, made an excellent address, and P. C. Schastian entertained the Lodge with delightful singing. About 9 o'clock this morning Mr. William Quackenbush, the proprietor of the White House Restaurant, corner of Thirty-second street and Grace avenue, met with quite a painful accident, causing the dislocation of the right ankle. The dog-catchers had just taken a dog belonging to his daughter, and when she offered to pay them the fine to release the dog, a colored man belonging to the gang, she avers, grossly insulted her, and she so told her father, who immediately sprang through the window and received the injury as above stated.

Mr. F. Benshaw to-day occupied his handsome new store and dwelling at the corner of Thirty-second and 0 streets. This new building, fronting twenty-flue feet on Thirty-second and fifty feet on 0 streets, is three stories high and basement; has a pressed brick front and all the modern internal improvements, including elevator. The basement and the first floors will be devoted to the use of his business, and third floor will be his residence. Messars. Bichard Hazel & Son were the architects and contractors, the brick work was done by McI-heny, the painting by J. R. Shanks, plumbing and gas-fitting by George W. Paul, all at an entire cost of 25,650. Mr. Renshaw, assisted by his brother, Mr. Charles Renshaw, his efficient and gentlemanly clerk, is now fully prepared to supply the wants of his numerous customers with everything to be found in a first-class grocery establishment.

Disease is an effect, not a cause. Its origin is within; its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cond must be removed, and in no other way can a cure ever be effected. WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a foot and room, and, by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing Disorders of Women, for Maisria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of imposters, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.
